CLERK: Okay, now, Mr. President, the motion is; (read)

SENATOR GOODRICH: Mr. President and Members of the body.

SPEAKER: Excuse me, is this 554 or 545?

CLERK: 454.

SENATOR GOODRICH: 454.

SPEAKER: 454. Senator Goodrich.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Mr. President and Members of the body. It came to our attention this morning that the State and all the political subdivisions have a problem when they sell surplus cars. If they were, if the State or a political subdivision was a dealer in cars, then they would have the right to issue in transit plates. They do not enjoy the status of a dealer, however, and consequently when the State or political subdivisions sells a car, a personal check is given at the auction, then they don't want to give out the title until such time as the check is cleared. Now if, if the party purchasing the car gives cash or a certified check, that's fine, he can get the title then, but if he does not, if he gives a personal check, they want to be able to attach the title to the check and let the title go through the bank. The minute the check has cleared, the man has his title. If the check does not clear, he does not get the title. In solving this particular problem, we developed this amendment to LB 454 because that was the only bill that was germane and I checked, this happens to be Senator Warner's bill and I checked with him and it was okay with him to have this amendment attached to his bill. I would have a question for Senator Warner if he would yield.

SPEAKER: Senator Warner.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Would you yield, Senator Warner?
